Dear FCC

I have tried to send this three times so far, and you site "times out". I would like you to forward this to the appropriate department in keeping with your own standards that state "The FCC web site will have a clear and consistent user interface that provides straightforward, timely access to FCC information." In my experience, you do not have a clear and consistent or timely interface.

I am not in favor of any more market centralization in the Media. I believe the refusal of CBS to show the Moveon.org ad as a prime e example of the need for more diversity in ownership of the media outlets. The egregious refusal of CBS to their showing of said ad smacks of totalitarianism, and deal brokering behind the scenes by the media (CBS) and the White House. At this time I feel the US will be better served by a broader and more diversified base of media owners.
